

INTAS project final workshop

“Mapping the SSH research capacities in Europe and the EECA countries”

Date: 16 - 17 June 2008

Venue: University of Tartu Eurocollege, Lossi str 3 - 307, Estonia, Tartu

Workshop language: English

Introduction

The workshop is a final meeting of partners of an INTAS project “Mapping the social sciences and humanities research capacities in Europe and the NIS: developing methodological approaches”, Contract INTAS Ref. Nr 05-100006-8446. The workshop was organized as a special session within an international conference “Regional development challenges of EU border regions in the context of the interaction between the EU and countries of its immediate “Neighbourhood””. See information on the conference at http://www.ctc.ee/index.php?menu_id=729&lang_id=2

The workshop agenda

- INTAS project objectives and activities – Dr. Gulnara Roll, University of Tartu
- Preliminary results of the survey on evaluating research capacity of SSH departments of universities from the perspective of their inclusion in the world scientific community and preparedness to the cooperation – Prof. Daniel Alexandrov, European University in St. Petersburg and Higher School of Economics St. Petersburg department
- Discussion of the survey organization, its preliminary results and possible follow-up activities – all participants
- Conclusions

Participants

Daniel Alexandrov, European University in St. Petersburg, St. Petersburg, Russia

Valeria Ivanyushina, European University in St. Petersburg, St. Petersburg, Russia

Gevork Poghosyan, Institute of Philosophy, Sociology and Law, Armenian Academy of Science

Syavush Azakov, Institute of Physics, Azerbaijan National Academy of Sciences

Koba Turmanidze, Caucasus Research Resource Center – Georgia

Gulnara Roll, University of Tartu

Piret Uus, University of Tartu

Eiki Berg, University of Tartu

Ülle Must, Archimedes, Tartu, Estonia

Elisabeth Schimpfoessl, Institute of Advanced Studies - Vienna and Manchester University

Alexander Chvorostov, Institute of Advanced Studies - Vienna, ENRI-East Project Coordinator

Prof. Hans Georg Heinrich, Vienna University, emeritus professor of political science

Alexander Gaponenko, Institute of European Studies, Latvia

Sergey Tuvakin, Foundation for Development of international relations&social systems, Russia

Alexander Onosov, Moscow State University

Claire Wallace, University of Aberdeen

Alina Ligia Dumitrescu, Institute of World Economy, Romania

Tatjana Slavova, Institute of Advanced Studies - Vienna, Researcher

Sergiu Porcescu, Academy of Sciences of Moldova

Elena Severin, Academy of Sciences of Moldova